appenent of the chit declared the disinclination of young men to enter the bonds of matrimuny is due to the system. of patting one's name on a piece of paper for averything one purchases, instead of pulling down the cash at once. the chit has indeed a great deal to answer for But why the shir should be so fatal to matrimony is not very evident. The question why the young men do not marry is being asked in many places now-a-days where chits are not. 'A joung man, fearing to get involved in debt for familia and other household expenses, as in sees his friends do, abstains from taking unto himself a wife until his means are such as to preclude the hecentry of signing chits to forniture dealers. That is the contention of the anti-chitiats, but it means hardly sufficient to support thu serious allegation and the shit. to supply the best growing at moderate Indeed it seems rather to incline the other way There may be young men who are rash enough to get married on the chit system; there certainly are those who are bold enough to do it on what is known as the three years system, but we should imagine the general opinion would for them to wait until they could carry out the transaction on a cash basis. And if the chit system has a tendency to delay the important event until it can be put through on that footing-although we den't quite see how it has that effect either-it can hardly be called an wine, Green Capule .... 6 0.60 onl result of the system. No : the obit his swide ofly been maligned in this matter, 7.50 0.75 and perhaps the strongest evidence of this that could be adduced in found in the fact. that while the majority of the gentlemen present during the discussion voted in fayour of the abolition of the chit, the ladies voted unanimously for he continuance, and completely swamped the other sex This result apparently made so deep an impression on an auti-chilist that he 14 1.25 wrote to one of the newspapers in the following terms :- One of the arguments Pints. brought forward in invour of discontinuing chits was that the system prevented young B St. Estophe. Red Capsule 4.50 5.00 men from marrying, because of the induce-7.50 ment to reckless extravagance in household patters. I dd not see the force of this argument at the beginning, but when I saw the ladies voting in isyone of chits I quite understood it. I had intended entering Case. THE Shangest Municipal Council do not seem to look with a great deal of delight on the offer of Mr Chang Su-ho to allow 8 0.75 foreigners to use his extensive gardens and grounds for repressive purposes. All who know Chine understand atmosphere is breathed by no living being. that it is the directing mandarinate in and whether this world of Mark which public companies which swallows up profits whirls with such rapidigathrough space: and destroys confidence. Butthe difficulty is like a milway train travelling empty. at present is that mutual suspicion has without passengers, without merchangrown so universal that any public com- dies ! The ides that the earth on pley in inland China will shudder at the which we are could take its course as it thought of its own birth; moreover the does about the sun without being inhabitiden of large outlay without immediate ed by any manner of creature seems so large profits in at present unthinkable, inconsistent that it is difficult to entertain whether in the one of morchants starting it. By what permanent miracle of sterilia waterworks or mandarins going in for ing the forces of nature, which act there as they do here, could they remain eternally inactive and unfruitful? It is understood then, that we must apply to the planet Mars the idea originally suggested in regard to the moon. The distance of this world is such that; although it is la superior to the moon in volume. it yo appears, when it is nearest to us, to be sixty-three times smaller. Nevertheless, it is clear from this that a telescope of only mirty-three magnifying power shows Mara with the dimensions that the moon appears to have to the naked eye; and that a magnifying power of 630 gives it a diameter ten times greater than that of our natellite as seen by the niked eye, and a surface a hundred times greater. The But if we ever attempt to put into practice any project whatever for communication between this world and our own the signals must be established upon a much greater scale. It will not be a matter of constructing triangles, squares, and circles measured by a few kilometres, but the figures must be a hundred or more kilometres in extent, and always upon the would be in that case looked upon as one hypothesis: first, that Mars is inhabited secondly, that the inhabitants are versed in astronomy; thirdly, that they have optical instruments of antheiest power; fourthly that they observe our planet with ourse at planet which is to them a splendid star of the hrst magnitude, the morning or the evening star, and, in fact, the most brilliant star in their sky. Wo are, indeed for them ! l'étoile du berger, or obre Venus. and their mythology ought to great altarn to us. Do you find this quadruple hypothesis acceptable? If we should put the question to the vote before, all the people in the world, there is no doubt as to what highly for the manful was in which he the reply would be. Without troubling ourselves to seek the printing of the natives of Central Africa, or of the inlands of the Pacific Osean -addressing ourselves only to the numerical majority of the population of Europe, it would be calcute wager that they would not even understand the question; for the majority of men do not know that the earth is a planet and that the other planets are sarths - M.
